

Table 1 Supplement: Key Early Adopters of Participatory Budgeting

City	Year	Description
Boston, MA	2014	Youth Lead the Change, first citywide youth PB process
Cambridge, MA	2014	Citywide process, relying on new revenues
Chicago, IL	2009	Alderman Joe Moore began PB process in his ward, first PB adoption in the U.S.
Greensboro, NC	2016	Multi-year effort by grassroots group culminating in PB process.
New York City, NY	2011	Most well-developed elected official program, with processes in more half of council districts by 2017
Oakland, CA	2017	Community Development Block Grant voting in two council districts
Vallejo, CA	2012	First citywide process, using 30% of sales tax increase passed after bankruptcy

Note: There is some inconsistency in the literature on start years, depending on whether the start of a process or the voting period is used. Sources: Participatory Budgeting Project resources and Public Agenda reports.