

Annexure B

Comparison of question effectiveness (as no. of truth scores/when lies told, percentage)

		AFP recruits	University students (previous research)
Q1	Smoking should be banned in all public places	31.9%	60.5%
Q2	Marriage should be available to all, not just heterosexual people	20.3%	38.8%
Q3	Death Penalty should be used in Australia for extreme cases	42.7%	45.9%
Q4	Abortion should be legal and accessible	20.2%	49.1%
Q5	People should be allowed to choose when they die	21.0%	46.5%
Q6	The burqa is a security risk	51.6%	50.9%
Q7	Religion should be taught in schools	33.5%	58.7%
Q8	Circumcision is child abuse	62.1%	48.2%
Q9	Women who choose C-sections are too posh to push	36.0%	37.1%
Q10	Social media limits social interaction	46.7%	65.5%
Q11	Celebrities lose their right to privacy when they become public figures	50.7%	45.4%
Q12	People in the USA have the right to bear arms, it shouldn't be taken away for the few who misuse.	37.7%	38.7%

Most effective are bold; least effective are italicised