

Supplementary Figure 1: Decalcification of 8 μm thick cryosections of day 7 bone fracture calluses resulted in the rupturing of the callus tissue. Representative images of day 7 fracture callus cryosection of 8 μm thickness stained histologically with safranin O fast green are shown. Images were taken at 40X magnification.

Safranin O Fast green staining - 8 μm sections

